Dixon Daily Telegraph Thirtieth Year No. 31

FUNERAL OF JOHN JULIEN SATURDAY

REMAINS OF AGED PIONEER TO ARRIVE IN DIXON FRIDAY.

AUTHORITY ON EARLY HISTORY

Mr. Julien Came Here When Dixon Was a Village—Was Public Spirited and Highly Respected.

The remains of our late citizen and friend, John M. Julien, will be brought to Dixon on the 11 o'clock train Friday morning. The death of Mr. Julien brings many expressions of sorrow from his old companions, who have known him since the early days before the civil war. He was a voter when Lincoln was a candidate in 1860 and remained all his life an admirer and supporter of the principles represented by Lincoln. He was much interested in the municipal affairs of Dixon, as well as in its material progress.

He was elected alderman in 1886, and continued in office for three years. During that time he acted as chairman of the fire and water committee and has always since taken an interest in the fire department of the city. At the time of the citizens' movement to obtain the location of the Fargo shoe factory here Mr. Julien was interested in the real estate business in a modest way, and contributed heavily to that project, both in money and enthusiasm. He was always proud of the fact that his efforts were recognized as one of the influences that resulted in the successful building of the factory.

For a number of years he has been one of the best authorities remaining as to events before the war. In the early history of our city. Coming here when Dixon was little more than a village, he lived to see his chosen home a city of importance, with all of the modern advantages of schools, public buildings and comfortable homes. He was always cheerful, genial and kind-hearted in all relations of life. His many old friends, many of whom have known him over 40 years, and some more than 50 years, have learned of his death with deep regret, and will always recall with a kindly recollection his many good qualities.

The funeral will take place at the residence of his son, Augustus Julien, on Saturday next at 2:30 p. m. It is requested that no flowers be sent by the friends of the deceased.

YOUNG ROCKFORD

HUSBAND SUICIDES

Rockford, Feb. 4.—Smarting under the disgrace which he felt that his wife had heaped upon him in being ordered from the city by the police, and also in disobeying his request not to write to his people, Carl A. Olson, aged 23, an employee at the Nelson Hotel, made deliberate preparations for suicide last Saturday night, and Sunday morning he was found dead in the room he had rented at Jarvis Inn, with a rubber gas tube in his mouth, an open can of ether mingling its fumes with the gas that poured out of the tube.

N. Y. POLICEMAN CONFESSES GRAFT

POLICE CAPTAIN SAYS THEY GOT AT LEAST $100,000 A YEAR.

New York, Feb. 6.—Police Captain Thomas Walsh has confessed that the police of New York City have been guilty of graft to the amount of $100,000 a year. His confession made on a sick bed, implicates men higher up. He said that his graft, which had been taken from a single precinct, had been divided with superior officers, and the prosecuting attorney anticipates a general 'cleaning up' of the police department of this city.

INCREASED FARES ON THE CITY CARS

PAY-AS-YOU-ENTER SYSTEM INCREASES RECEIPTS AT STERLING.

A marked increase in fares is the result of the installing of the pay as you enter city cars in Sterling, says the Gazette. Although the plan has been in operation less than a week, it has given such remarkable satisfaction that the company now contemplates the installation of the service on interurban cars.

The result so far shows a big increase in receipts, practically thirty per cent. A representative of the company said today that everybody who rides on a city car pays for the transportation, and that was not true before the present service went into force.

MRS. KINNEY SUBMITS

TO SECOND OPERATION

Mrs. Kinney, who was shot by her husband six weeks ago, has been compelled to submit to a secondary operation at the hospital this week and as a result she has not been allowed to leave the institution. VICAR GENERAL HAS ADVICE FOR YOUNG

TELLS GIRLS LENT IS GOOD TIME TO BREAK HABIT OF SAUCINESS

Vicar General Bennett, of the Rockford diocese, who is well known in Dixon, in announcing the Lenten regulations of the Catholic church, adds the following advice:

'Girls do not be saucy to your mother or others during Lent. Do not talk back to anyone. Those of you who have done so may not have been to blame always. In many instances it is the parents' fault, for one may have heard the mother say, 'she will stop it some day.'

'Boys and girls do not overeat during Lent. It is not intended that you should deprive yourself of sufficient food but you should be temperate.

'I ask the boys to observe Lenten season by making an effort not to use profane language and to stay away from moving picture shows. The nickels you might spend there should be saved and given to an orphan's home.

'The older people should make it a rule to visit the sick. They like to have you come. Throw the bouquets while they are living. But do not remain with a sick person too long. It may tire them out as they are weak physically. When it comes ten minutes announce that you intend going. If you are given enough encouragement, remain, but not longer than 15 minutes in all.'

SCHRADER'S RETURN TO DIXON

FORMER DIXONITE HAS BEEN A WIRELESS OPERATOR IN NAVY.

VANDALS DESTROY PRIEST'S VESTMENT

ECCLESIASTICAL ROBE IN THE ELGIN CHURCH CUT TO PIECES.

Elgin, Feb. 5.—What was declared to be the most malicious act of vandalism committed here in years was perpetrated late last week, according to reports made public today, when unknown persons entered the sacristy of St. Mary's Catholic church and cut the alb, a white linen vestment worn by the priest in celebrating mass, into small pieces and clipped the tassels from the brieftas or caps worn by the priests.

What impulse is responsible for this act the pastor, Father J. J. McCann, formerly of Polo, was unable to state. He declared that in his belief it was pure vandalism and attributed it to no ulterior motive.

HARVESTING ICE AT HIGH SPEED

PURE ICE COMPANY HAS MARVELOUS ARRANGEMENT FOR GATHERING CROP.

There are probably many people in Dixon who have never watched the harvest of ice at the Dixon Pure Ice company's houses, and who do not realize the wonderful possibilities of the system there. The complete arrangements of machinery, chutes, etc., make it possible for the men to house away or store in cars one ton of ice every minute.

The chutes, which are at different levels and all of which are controlled by switches, are located between the two big storage houses, and a steady stream of shaven ice can be directed into each house at will.

ROCKFORD POLICE GET BOY 'BANDITS'

GANG OF SEVENTH STREET BOYS HAVE COMMITTED MANY CRIMES

Rockford, Feb. 5.—When the police rounded up Dewey Roos, Joe Manti, William Johnson, Carter Carlson and Eddie Anderson, they brought into custody the band of youngsters known among themselves as the 'Seventh street bandits.' And the lads do not come far from meriting the name, for their depredations have been numerous and have shown no small amount of tact in pulling off some of their stunts. Their crimes range from tapping tills and purses to collecting from prepay gas meters.

For several months the boys have been engaged in their practice successfully eluding all efforts of the police to bring about their capture, and the more they eluded the police the more bold became the boys in the operations.

Complaint after complaint has been made, and in some instances older persons were suspected of the crimes for which it is now known the boys were responsible.

PREDICT GREAT THINGS FOR DIXON'S FUTURE

EXPECT POPULATION OF THIS CITY TO DOUBLE BY 1920

A business man, who has been a resident of Dixon for thirty years, today said that he believed that Dixon was scheduled for the biggest and most successful year in its history. He believes that the long waited boom has arrived and even went so far as to predict that the population of the city would be doubled in 1920. He took this optimistic view because of the many new buildings that have been erected and are to be erected, and because of the incentive business has received as the result of the addition of new manufacturing concerns, etc., and the increased business which is coming to established concerns.

GOLD SELLS TAILOR SHOP.

H. Gold today turned his tailor shop on West First street over to Frank Foreman, a tailor of experience who has been employed there for some time.

LOVELANDS WENT THRU EARTHQUAKE

SLIGHT SHOCK IN SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, CAUSED LITTLE EXCITEMENT.

The following extracts from a letter written by G. C. Loveland from San Jose, Costa Rica, January 15th, will be of interest:

Much cooler here, but we shall be glad when we get back into the states—do not think I will go out of them again very soon. I am also anxious about my business affairs, as I have not been able to do a thing in that line on account of receiving no mail. Am in hopes to find mail at the St. Charles hotel in New Orleans on my arrival there. The mails are very uncertain in this country.

Intend going 100 miles down to the sea coast tomorrow and take a steamer for Guatemala; that is, if the said steamer arrives as advertised. We have been disappointed several times.

Quite an earthquake shock here today, yet the natives are little excited on account of it. It happened at 1:20. We did not notice it as at that time we were entering the city on a train, returning from visiting the ruins of Cartago, the former capital of Costa Rica. It was made nearly a complete wreck by an earthquake in May two years ago.

MRS. GEISHA APPEARS IN LIMELIGHT AGAIN

OFFICIALS ATTACH WOMAN'S HOUSEHOLD GOODS FOR DEBT.

After a lull of many weeks, in which they have not figured in the police courts, the Geisha family, who reside east of the city, were haled before Police Magistrate Kent this morning and until Mrs. Geisha, who yesterday sold her boarding house, pays the debts she owes to Dixon merchants, she will not be allowed to take her possessions.

Geisha, it is reported, left his wife some time ago and the woman and her three children will have to face the music alone. According to witnesses, yesterday, when she settled with Stitzel Brothers for meat she had purchased and Mr. Stitzel gave her back too much change, she refused to refund the money and accordingly Magistrate Kent was called upon.

His activities soon showed that the woman was indebted to many other local merchants, and there were indications that the woman intended to leave the city without paying them. Accordingly Mr. Kent attached her goods for these merchants, and she will be forced to pay before they are released.

ICE DELAYED TRAINS AT MENDOTA PLANT

An accident of a peculiar nature which tied up traffic on the Illinois Central road took place last evening at Mendota. An engine crew stopped at the water tank to fill the tank of the engine tender. When the fireman concluded his work he did not close the cutoff properly. The train continued on its way and the water kept flowing from the water tank. It flowed to one of the interlocking switches and froze, not allowing any trains to pass over the switch. It was nearly two hours before the trouble was fixed up and trains passed over the track. A number of trains were blocked both ways out of Mendota on account of the trouble.

Take advantage of our liberal offer. The Evening Telegraph and Orange Judd Farmer, both one year by mail for $3.40.

R. M. Moore went to Kankakee this morning to spend several weeks. He will conduct two large sales while there.

DR. S. S. CRYOR OF OREGON IS PRAISED

NEW PIPE ORGAN HAS BEEN INSTALLED IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH THERE.

The Ogle County Reporter of Oregon, printed on Wednesday, Feb. 5th, shows a large picture of the interior of the Presbyterian church of that city and a view of the new organ. The paper also gives a splendid likeness of Dr. S. S. Cryor, pastor of the church, formerly pastor of the Dixon church. The illustrations show the completion of extensive improvements to the church, including a beautiful new pipe organ. Half of the amount was given in a benefaction from Carnegie; the rest, $7000, has been subscribed since August. He Cryor went to Oregon in August. He undertook the seemingly impossible task with all the ardor and earnestness with which Dixon people know him to be capable of and now has the pleasure of viewing the fruition of those efforts, with the aid of his congregation. The Ogle County Reporter concludes the article as follows:

Only a few of those who joined the church forty years ago are living today to see and hear the beautiful, sweet-toned instrument, and tears of sadness mingled with songs of rejoicing as they today remember those who have crossed the 'Great Divide,' who 'rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.'

HOLY WEEK NO BAN ON ST. PATRICK FETE

IRISH-AMERICANS MAY CELEBRATE MARCH 17 DESPITE COINCIDENCE

Although St. Patrick's day falls on Monday in Holy Week, the event may be generally celebrated, according to the Book of Armagh, a history of St. Patrick transcribed in 708 and recently discovered in Chicago.

The volume gives authority for a Holy Week celebration to St. Patrick's memory in 1913. On page 67, the book declares that St. Patrick should receive 4 honors the first of which is observance of his day, the seventeenth of March, although it fall in Holy Week.

The book further states the day shall be celebrated according to every good cheer except flesh. Rev. J. K. Fiedling of Chicago has declared that when need arose the church has made dispensations when St. Patrick's day fell on Friday.

Wherefore Irish-American organizations and Catholic orders in general will celebrate this year despite the coincidence.

PLAN NORTHERN ILL. BASEBALL LEAGUE

DIXON FANS ARE VERY ANXIOUS TO GET IN ON THE SCHEDULE.

TO PLAY WEEK-END GAMES

Aurora, DeKalb, Dixon, Belvidere, Rochelle and Elgin—Men From the Latter City Are Promoting the League Plan.

A baseball league of six clubs, to play Saturday and Sunday ball, and to consist of teams in Aurora, DeKalb, Dixon, Belvidere, Rochelle and Elgin, is being promoted by Elgin baseball men, and Dixon promoters have been asked to assist in the successful culmination of the project. The following letter received yesterday by John Valle explains plans of the promoters:

Dear Sir—It is the intention of the various representatives of several baseball clubs to form a Semi-Pro League, to consist, if possible, of Aurora, DeKalb, Dixon, Belvidere, Rochelle and Elgin. It is the intention of the above named representatives to play week-end games on Saturday and Sunday as per schedule to be drafted by the representatives of the League.

There will be required a bonus of $100 as a guarantee of your presence in the league for the entire season of 1913, said bonus to be paid to the Board of Directors of the league when it is perfected. It is to your interest to look into this matter, as there is no doubt that it will mean an increase in your gate receipts.

Any information you wish will gladly be given you by communicating with W. L. Wright or O. R. Boothby of Elgin.

(Signed) WRIGHT and BOOTHBY. We Investigate.

The local baseball men are very much interested in the proposition, and undoubtedly some action will be taken to interest the fans and secure their sentiment in the matter. It is believed that the formation of such a league would prove of benefit to the cities named and would interest the fans.

He admitted to the court that he had been a little troublesome, and deserved all he got.

GARRISON IS HOAXED

Joke Turns Town Out to Greet the Kaiser.

Discharged Paymaster's Prank on Troops at Strassburg Causes All Germany to Laugh.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—A discharged army paymaster named Wolter, bent on out-Kopenicking Kopenick, played a joke on the garrison at Strassburg at which the whole of Germany is roaring.

The military governor of Strassburg received a telegram advising him that the kaiser was on his way to the garrison town. The governor was directed to alarm the garrison and assemble it for dress parade. The populace became very much excited and preparations were hurriedly made to welcome the supreme war lord who the telegram stated, would arrive between 11 and 12.

The governor, accompanied by the viceroys of Alsace-Lorraine, Count Weld and Prince Joachim, the emperor's sixth son, got into life for the time being, while a Zeppelin airship made ready to ascend and greet the kaiser. Meantime the city was made gay with bunting and thousands of persons streamed to the parade field. Three o'clock rolled around and with no signs of the emperor, the military authorities realized that some one had played a joke on them. What will happen to Wolter is talked of only in whispers.

The Best Cough Syrup is Easily Made at Home

Costs Little and Acts Quickly. Money Refunded if It Fails.

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup, and saves you about $2.00 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It stops obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—in a hurry, and is splendid for sore lungs, asthma, croup, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes Good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this recipe, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

FREEPORT TO HAVE 10-STORY FACTORY

RAWLEIGH MEDICAL COMPANY PREPARING PLANS FOR SKYSCRAPER.

Freeport, Feb. 5.—Architects are planning a ten or twelve story building to be erected for the W. T. Rawleigh Medical company, to be located north of the present building and to cover a space 183x120 feet. It is possible that work will be started this spring. Present plans provide for a brick and cement structure, strictly fire-proof in every particular. The cost of such a building will run high, in fact the local company at the present time can only speculate what such a building will cost. Recently a four story building was built at Memphis at a cost of $60,000, and the building to be erected in Freeport will be heavier, of better material and therefore more costly in every way.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so calives have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.

DEMENTTOWN ... DOINGS

The ice and coal men are satisfied with it anyway, so what's the use of us poor common wretches kicking.

No more use than a certain Dixon man who owns 160 acres of land in Dakota has to object to the letter he got yesterday from his agents who are in charge of the land. He rented the land on shares this year, accepting a nominal rent for the hay land and a percentage of the crops on all other ground. He visited the farm in June and everything was bright and rosy, so when he received a letter from his agent he anticipated also finding a check for several hundred enclosed. "Imagine, therefore his joy on reading the following:

Dear Sir:—In reply to your request for the rent, permit us to say that the wheat and spelt did not amount to much, there being but 8 or 10 bushels altogether. We have tried to get the rent for the hay land, but the renter has sickness in his family and always has a hard luck story. We will do the best we can.

SAYS GOVERNMENT SHOULD OWN ROADS

Taft Sends Message of Comment on Proposed Alaska Rail Lines.

COST WILL REACH $35,000,000

Commission Which Has Been Conducting Examination as to Feasibility of Plan Recommends Construction of Two Lines.

Washington, Feb. 6.—President Taft sent to congress today a message of comment on the report of the commission which has been conducting an examination in Alaska with a view to recommending routes for the construction of railroads which congress may decide shall be owned and operated by the government. It may be that congress will sanction government ownership and private operation.

Recommends Roads' Construction.

The commission recommends the construction of two railroads in Alaska, which shall connect tide water on the Pacific ocean with the two great inland water ways, the Yukon and the Kuskokwim rivers. The railroads thus recommended will constitute two independent systems, involving 733 miles of new construction, at a cost of $35,000,000. The commission in its report states in conclusion that it "is unanimously of the opinion that this development should be undertaken at once, and prosecuted with vigor; that it cannot be accomplished without providing for the railroads herein recommended, or some system which will insure low transportation charges and the consequent rapid settlement of this new land and the utilization of its great resources."

Favors Government Ownership.

President Taft in his message says: "The necessary inference from the entire report is that, in the judgment of the commission, its recommendations can certainly be carried out only if the government builds or guarantees the construction cost of the railroads recommended."

"If the government is to guarantee the principal and interest of the construction bonds, it seems clear that it should own the roads, the cost of which it really pays. This is true whether the government itself should operate the road or should provide for their operation by lease or operating agreement. I am very much opposed to government operation, but I believe that government ownership, with private operation under lease, is the proper solution of the difficulty here presented."

Knock Number of Diet Down on Tokyo Streets.

Riots in Front of Chamber Follows Vote of Censure for the Katsura Cabinet.

Tokyo, Feb. 6.—Knocking down members of the diet, knocking their hats off and tearing their clothes, an angry mob of citizens enacted a wild scene in front of parliament house as a demonstration of hostility toward Premier Katsura.

The trouble was caused by the diet, by a majority of 234, voting a lack of confidence in the government and taking a recess of five days. As the Nationalist members emerged from the house they were roughly handled, a proceeding rare in Japanese politics.

It is said that the government will dissolve the diet, but Premier Katsura will not resign, having announced his intention of going to the people for their support of the new party he is trying to form.

VASSAR GIRL DROWNED

Toboggan Breaks Through Ice With Five Young Women.

Four Are Rescued by Miss Phoebe Briggs and Professor Shattock—Other Goes Down.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Gliding down the famous old Sunset hill on the Vassar campus, five girls of the college, daughters of noted families, sped far out upon the new lake, their toboggan tore through the ice and in an instant all were clinging to the crumbling edges of the ice or foundering helpless in 20 feet of water.

That is, all but one, Miss Elizabeth Bertille Mylod, daughter of John J. Mylod—the corporation counsel of Poughkeepsie. She had been seated at the front of the toboggan and as it crashed its way into the water she was carried under the ice and entrapped there. Though rescuers came quickly she could not be found. It was an hour before the body was recovered.

It was the quick and daring work of Miss Phoebe Briggs, a student, and Professor Shattock that saved the lives of the other girls.

The girls who were rescued are: Miss Myra Hulst, daughter of C. J. Hulst of New Hamburg, N. Y.

Miss Mildred Tenniston, daughter of Frederick A. Tenniston of Cambridge, Mass.

Miss Laura Reimer, daughter of John R. Reimer of Kingston, N. Y.

Miss Anna J. Oldham, daughter of J. R. Oldham of Cleveland, O.

Miss Mylod was one of the most beautiful girls of Vassar, a brilliant student, prominent in social circles as well as scholastic affairs.

PUJO STARTS SOUTH

En Route to Jekyll Island to See Rockefeller.

Chairman of Congressional Money Quiz Body Is Accompanied by Attorney Samuel Undermyer.

Washington, Feb. 6.—William Rockefeller's attorney, Garber, has given no definite promise to Chairman Pujo and Samuel Undermyer of the money trust investigating committee that Mr. Rockefeller can be interviewed when he is seen tomorrow at Jekyll Island.

Mr. Rockefeller will decide whether he is in condition to be interviewed after the arrival of Chairman Pujo and Mr. Undermyer, who started from here today. His attending physicians will have something to say on the subject. They have been insisting that he should not be subjected to an interview because of the condition of his throat and the danger from excitement.

As a consequence the trip may prove a wild goose chase. Representative Pujo did not want to bother Mr. Rockefeller after he had learned of his condition, but the committee decided that an attempt to get desired information should be made. Representative Pujo accordingly will be insistent on the interview, but he has not the authority to break into Mr. Rockefeller's apartments should the latter decline to grant an audience.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIC

NO SICK HEADACHE, BILIOUS STOMACH, COATED TONGUE OR CONSTIPATED BOWELS BY MORNING.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

SURELY TAKE "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

SWEETENS YOUR STOMACH, CLEARS YOUR HEAD AND THOROUGHLY CLEANS YOUR LIVER AND 30 FEET OF BOWELS OF SOUR BILE, FOUL GASES AND CLOGGED-UP WASTE

All those days when you feel miserable, headachy, bilious and dull are due to torpid liver and sluggish bowels. The days when your stomach is sour and full of gas, when you have indigestion the nights when your nerves twitch and you are restless and can't sleep could be avoided with a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs. Isn't it foolish too be distressed when there is such a pleasant way to overcome it?

Give your inactive liver and ten yards of waste-clogged bowels a thorough cleansing this time. Put an end to constipation.

Take a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs tonight sure and just see for yourself by morning, how gently but thoroughly all the same bile, undigested fermenting food and clogged up waste matter is moved out and out of your system—no nausea—no griping—no weakness.

You simply can't have your liver inactive and your thirty feet of bowels constipated with sour, decaying waste matter and feel well. The need of a laxative is a natural need, but with delicious Syrup of Figs you are not dragging yourself. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it can not injure.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." Refuse, with scorn, any of the so-called Fig Syrup imitations. They are meant to deceive you. Look on the label The genuine, old reliable, bears the name, California Fig Syrup Company.

 pected to return home sooner but on account of being afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, she was obliged to remain much longer than she had intended.

The school board met for a special meeting in the directors' room at the First National bank Monday evening for the transaction of business of importance.

Rev. H. Appelmann was out of town
 a few days this week.

Mrs. Anna Bourne left about a week ago for California to remain for some time.

Miss Badger of Binghamton, who has been threatened with pneumonia is much better and her friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Hiram Noble was in from west of town Wednesday.

Mrs. Potter is still quite ill. She has not been in good health for some time.

The severe cold weather the past few days has kept many people at home. The weather is certainly bracking and the coal man is busy supplying those whose stock has been diminished by the long cold spell.

A large number of people from Amboy and vicinity are attending the Chicago auto show.

Andrew Aschenbrenner was here today.

Chas. Entorf spent several days in Chicago.

A special business meeting was held Tuesday evening to arrange the plans for the coming Sunday school convention, to be held here in April.
 On account of several members of the committee being out of town, nothing definite was decided upon.

Miss Josephine Bryant is occupying the position vacated by Miss Lela Hauze, in the offices of Dr. Sullivan and Dr. Moore. Miss Hauze was compelled to resign because of ill health of her mother, Mrs. Minnie Hauze.
 Mrs. Hauze is somewhat improved at present.

Our ice dealers have started hauling ice, the season being a little late on account of the open winter.

DAN TUTTLE FIRED
"THE PIONEER"

Retiring C. & N. W. Engineer Long in Road's Service.

Engineer Dan Tuttle stepped down from the cab of his engine on Friday night, wiped his hands on a bit of waste and began unhooking his overalls. He had just brought in the Sterling passenger from Chicago.

"That's the last trip, boys," he said to the house men. "Fifty-seven years of railroading ends tonight and now
 I'm a pensioner."

There was a bit of a catch in Dan's voice as he said it.

Engineer Tuttle spent the greater part of the 57 years in the service of the Northwestern road. He was born in Belvidere, where his father was sheriff. He entered the employ of the Northwestern as a wiper and at one time fired the famous old "Pioneer."

Tuttle has had many choice runs on Illinois divisions of the road. For years he ran between Chicago and Freeport on what was known as the "Gilt Edge." Policeman P. J. Sullivan of Rockford, an old time Northwestern engineer, fired for Tuttle.

The retired engineer will receive a pension of $85 a month for the rest of his life. His home is in Belvidere and he is a veteran of the civil war.

 port bureau of the Century Lyceum bureau, was here today.

Leroy Lehman and Colin Hartzell

 cago last evening after spending several days at the auto show.

Lee Hart is attending the Chicago auto show.

Mrs. George Remsberg of Ohio is visiting at the home of Supervisor
 George Prescott. She is on her way home from Rockford.

T. F. Fanning of Chicago, a theatrical man, has been the guest of W.
 H. Godfrey for a few days.

Hon. J. P. Devine returned last evening from Springfield, the legislature having adjourned until next Tuesday.

Robert Bescher of Aurora was here yesterday.

Dr. Lehman was in Ashton today on business.

Wm. Ware went to Chicago today to attend the auto show for a few days.

C. Thompson was a Chicago business caller today.

Attorney W. L. Leach of Amboy is

Dr. Gable talks of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Heart Disease, Stomach and Kidney Trouble

DR. EDWIN O. GABLE,
Neuropathic Specialist.

I want to say a few words to people suffering with rheumatism, uric acid troubles, kidney and bladder troubles, heart disease and stomach troubles. These diseases are all caused from practically the same thing, and you might call them first cousins. In the beginning, there is some derangement of digestion or of the secretions. This allows the partly digested food to pass into the blood in such a state that the blood cannot assimilate all of it. As a result of this there is a great deal of waste matter that must be carried off through the kidneys and skin, and the kidneys become gradually clogged up, causing reabsorption of this waste matter into the blood. It then settles in the muscles, nerves, in the small capillary blood vessels in the joints and causes the disease.

I want to state positively that every cause of the above disease is curable with my Neuropathic system of treatment, if the patient comes to me before too much of the tissue of the diseased organ is destroyed. My system of treatment cleanses and purifies the blood. It restores normal circulation and strengthens the nerves, and dissolves disease deposit. I would like every sufferer of these troubles to come to me on this trip to Dixon. I will take the time to make a thorough examination of the heart, the circulation, the blood trouble and the kidneys, and when I have finished, I will tell them exactly what their condition is; whether they can be cured or not.

Catarrh of the nose, throat, or constitution, deafness, head noises and ulcers of the ears come from the same cause as rheumatism. I have treated hundreds of cases of catarrh and deafness with my new system of treatment, curing them completely, and restoring perfect hearing. All cases of weak eyes, chronic inflammation of the eyes, internal eye diseases, and partial blindness are successfully treated by my method. Every form of weakness and disease of the nervous system, especially that kind that affects the heart, causes palpitation, shortness of breath, irregular pulse, smothering spells, dizzy spells, sick headaches, pain around the heart—all these troubles are given immediate relief by my treatment. Men and women suffering with weakness of some of their vital organs, no matter where, can obtain complete relief by my system of treatment. All chronic discharges, all wastings are curable.

I have treated over one hundred people in my two visits to Dixon, and have had wonderful success with many old chronic cases. On this trip I am going to make examinations, give consultations, and offer my services free to every sufferer that comes to me. I am not going to leave you any excuse for not learning of this treatment. I believe it is the only scientific treatment. You have everything to gain and absolutely nothing to lose by getting my professional opinion of your case, by learning exactly the condition your disease is in, and by knowing the condition of your heart, nerves, blood and kidneys. I use no strong poisonous remedies, but such remedies as dissolve and clean out the disease deposits in the blood and tissues, that equalize circulation, that restore strength and vitality to weak nerves. When this is done you are bound to get well. No matter where you live, rich or poor, I want you to come to see me this trip. You can do a kindness to some suffering neighbor or friend by telling them of my visit and my new system of treatment. Tell them to come and see me. You will also help me do them a kindness. While I will return to Dixon twice each month, this may be the last chance you will have to obtain my services free. My object is to cure a number of patients around Dixon to prove that my system of treatment is superior to others. Remember the days. I will remain at the Nachusa House until 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Feb. 8.

WILL JOHNSON AND WELLS

BATTLE IN FRANCE?

Will Jack Johnson and Bombardier Wells, the British heavyweight champion, be permitted to fight for the title in Paris, or any place in France after the manner in which the proposed contest was stopped in London a little less than two years ago? It was the proposed contest between the two that stirred up such a sensation in merry old England and came near putting a quietus on the sport in a country that had for hundreds of years supported it. It was announced recently that Al Palzer, the white hope, who was defeated by Luthers McCartney in such a decisive manner, had been matched with the colored man in Paris for some time in June, but reports just at hand say that Wells is to be the man to go against Johnson. Just what French promoters will do is hard to say, but the chances are they have things arranged satisfactorily or they would not take a chance on dropping a big bank roll on an uncertainty. The original plan was to have a big heavyweight tournament in Paris; then have the big fight as a grand finale on the eve of the Grand Prix on June 29. It was arranged to have George Carpentier, who has advanced into the light heavyweight class, and Marcel Moreau, another light heavy, meet for the title in that class. On March 4th Billy Papke and Frank Klan, both Americans, are to box 20 rounds for the world's middleweight title (which, by the way, is impossible, as the weight is not right and neither one holds the American championship), and then in April it was planned to have the winners of these two battles meet for the privilege of meeting Bombardier Wells for the white heavyweight championship of the world (which again is wrong, as none of them have any right to the title in the heavyweight class except Wells, and he holds the title of Great Britain only). With all these battles settled, the promoters intended to have the big noise the night before the big French race, which would be all right under certain conditions but there may be a slipping of the cogs somewhere before the time for the big bout comes around. Johnson may have trouble in getting over to the gay city, and then again Wells may hold out for such a big sum that it might take the breath away from the promoters in Paris. The fight which would really get the money for the promoters is a Wells-McCartney clash. That would really be a white championship affair and it would attract more attention than any match that could be made at the present time. It would be a wonderful card in either London, Paris, San Francisco or Los Angeles.

D. U. H. S. LOAD UP

FOR POLO PLAYERS

The Union high school basketball team is rapidly recovering from the effects of the beating it received at Sterling Saturday evening and is getting into trim for its bout with the Polo high school team which will be here for a big game at the Dixon high school Friday evening.

Last year when the Polo team came to town, it brought a band and about two hundred rooters. It is not yet known whether they plan to duplicate the feat this year.

The Polo lineup:

Wales, center; Middlekauf, lf; Miller, cf; Copenhaver, rg; Wilson, lg.

The local bunch will be somewhat crippled by the absence of Wayne Julien from the lineup, owing to the death of his grandfather. Irving Countryman, who has practiced with the team, will take his place and no doubt will put up a good game.

The lineup of the Dixon team will be:

Loftus, center; Lord and Ackert, guards; Drew and Countryman, forwards.

The schedule for the rest of the season for the local team is as follows:

Feb. 14—Freeport, here.

Feb. 21—At LaSalle.

Feb. 28—LaSalle, here.

March 7—At Byron.

CLINTON BOWLERS

The complete lineup of the Dixon team has not yet been determined.

DRAMATIC NOTES

OPERA HOUSE

Thos. W. Ross in 'THE ONLY SON'

Thos. W. Ross who comes to the Opera House Wednesday, Feb. 12, in Winchell Smith's latest comedy drama, 'The Only Son,' is said to be more remarkable than a great many 'character' offerings which have been sent here from abroad. It is said to tell a dramatic story and enjoy the big advantages of a theme. This theme, curiously enough, is identical with that which formed Mr. Smith's previous play, 'The Fortune Hunter.' The two plays are utterly different in story and tone but each of them in its own way unfolds a working out of a narrative project that is in both cases essentially the same. This project, briefly, is to present in the first act a young man who has made a mess of his life, and apparently is worthless, and hereafter to find him through a series of circumstances that call forth certain inherent qualities of strength which till then have lain dormant in his nature, so that, in the end, he made good, and emerges as a master of his circumstances and himself.

FAMILY THEATRE.

A special feature picture in two reels called 'The Dawning' will be shown at the Family theatre this evening in connection with the new vaudeville bill, consisting of Stuart & Hall, a comedy singing and talking act, and Dierck Bros., in marvelous feats of strength.

OPERA HOUSE.

The usual atmosphere of merriment will be set rolling at the opera house tomorrow evening and continue Saturday and Sunday night. Victoria Sisters, a refined singing act with change of costumes, and A. J. O'Brien, musical and character comedian. Pictures of the better kind will be shown. Note for Friday night the feature picture in 2 reels 'Daughter of the Spy.'

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

At Camp Supply.

There are yet living in that great Southwest those who will retell the story of Hamlin's ride from the banks of the Washita to Camp Supply. It remains one of the epics of the plains, one of the proud traditions of the army. To the man himself those hours of danger, struggle and weariness, were more a dream than a reality. He passed through them almost unconsciously, a soldier performing his duty in utter forgetfulness of self, moved by the discipline of years of service, by the importance of his mission, and by memory of Molly McDonald. Love and duty held him reeling in the saddle, brought him safely to the journey's end.

Let the details pass unwritten. Beneath the darkening skies of early evening, the Sergeant and the Osage guide rode forth into the peril and mystery of the shrouded desert. Beyond the outpost picket, moving as silently as two specters, they found at last a coulee leading upward from the valley to the plains above. To their left the Indian fires swept in half circle, and between were the dark outlines of savage foes. From rock to rock echoed guttural voices, but, foot by foot, unnoted by the keen eyes, the two crept steadily on through the midnight of that sheltering ravine, dismounted, hands clasping the nostrils of their ponies, feeling through the darkness for each step, halting breathless at every crackle of a twig, every crunch of snow under foot. Again and again they paused, silent, motionless, as some apparition of savagery outlined itself between them and the sky, yet slowly, steadily, every instinct of the plains exercised, they passed unseen.

In the earliest gray of dawn the two wearied men crept out upon the upper plateau, dragging their horses. Behind, the mists of the night still hung heavy and dark over the valley, yet with a new sense of freedom they swung into their saddles, faced sternly the chill wind of the north and rode forward across the desolate snow fields. It was no boys' play! The tough, half-broken Indian ponies kept steady stride, leaping the drifts, skimming rapidly along the bare hill-sides. From dawn to dark scarcely a word was uttered. By turns they slept in the saddle, the one awake gripping the other's rein. Once, in a strip of cottonwood beside a frozen creek, they paused to light a fire and make a hasty meal. Then they were off again, facing the frosty air, riding straight into the north. Before them stretched the barren snow-clad steppes, forlorn and shelterless, with scarcely a mark of guidance anywhere, a dismal wilderness, intersected by gloomy ravines and frozen creeks. Here and there a river, the pled aside the snow into a wall of shelter, built a hasty fire, and poured hot coffee between the shivering lips. With the earliest gray of another dawn, the white man caught the strongest pony, and rode on alone. He never knew the story of those hours—only that his trail led straight into the north. He rode erect at first, then leaning forward clinging to the mane; now and then he staggered along on foot dragging his pony by the rein. Once he stopped to eat, breaking the ice in a creek for water. It began to snow, the thick fall of flakes blotting out the horizon, leaving him to stumble blindly through the murk. Then darkness came, wrapping him in a cloak of silence in the midst of that unspeakable desert. His limbs stiffened, his brain reeled from intense fatigue. He dragged himself back into the saddle, pressing the pony into a slow trot. Suddenly out of the wall of gloom sprang the yellow lights of Camp Supply. Beneath these winking eyes of guidance there burst the red glare of a fire. Even as he saw it the pony fell, but the exhausted man had forgotten now everything but duty. The knowledge that he had won the long struggle brought him new strength. He wrenched his feet free from the stirrups, and ran forward, calling to the guard. They met him, and he stood straight before them, every nerve taut—a soldier.

"I bring dispatches from Custer," he said slowly, holding himself firm. "Take me to General Sheridan."

The corporal walked beside him, down the trampled road, questioning eagerly as they passed the line of shacks toward the double log house where the commander was quartered. Hamlin heard, and answered briefly, yet was conscious only of an effort to retain his strength. Once within, he saw only the short, sturdy figure sitting behind a table, the shaggy gray beard, the stern, questioning eyes which surveyed him. He stood there straight, motionless, his uniform powdered with snow, his teeth clenched so as not to betray weakness, his face roughened by exposure, grimy with dirt, and disfigured by a week's growth of beard. Sheridan stared at him, shading his eyes from the glow of the lamp.

"You are from Custer?"

"Yes, sir."

He drew the papers from within his overcoat, stepped forward and laid them on the table. Sheridan placed one hand upon them, but did not remove his gaze from Hamlin's face.

"When did you leave?"

"The evening of the 27th, sir. I was sent back with an Osage guide to bring you this report."

"And the guide?"

"He gave out on the Cimarron and I came alone."

"And Custer? Did he strike Black Kettle?"

"We found his camp on the evening of the 26th, and attacked at daybreak the next morning. There were more Indians with him than we expected to find—between two and three thousand, warriors from all the southern tribes. Their tepees were set up for ten miles along the Washita. We captured Black Kettle's village, and destroyed it; took his pony herd, and released a number of white prisoners, including some women and children. There was a sharp fight, and we lost quite a few men; I left too early to learn how many."

"And the command—is it in any danger?"

"I think not, sir. General Custer was confident he could retire safely. The Indians were thoroughly whipped, and apparently had no chief under whom they could rally."

The General opened the single sheet of paper, and ran his eyes slowly down the lines of writing. Hamlin, feeling his head reel giddily, reached out silently and grasped the back of a chair in support. Sheridan glanced up.

"General Custer reports Major Elliott as missing and several officers badly wounded."

"Yes, sir."

"What Indians were engaged, and under what chiefs?"

"Mostly Cheyennes, although there were bands of Arapahoes, Kiowas, Comanches, and a few Apaches. Little Rock was in command after Black Kettle was killed—that is of the Cheyennes. Little Raven, and Santanta led the others."

"A fiend, that last. But, Sergeant, you are exhausted. I will talk with you tomorrow. The officer of the day will assign you quarters."

Hamlin, still clinging to the chair with one hand, lifted the other in salute.

"General Sheridan," he said, striving to control his voice, "General Custer's last words to me were that I was to tell you who I am. I do not know what he meant, but he said you would have news for me."

"Indeed!" in surprise, stiffening in his chair.

"Yes, sir—my name is Hamlin."

"Hamlin! Hamlin!" the General repeated the word. "I have no recollection—why, yes, by Gad! You were a Confederate colonel."

"Fourth Texas Infantry."

"That's it! I have it now; you were court-martialed after the affair at Fisher's Hill, and dismissed from the service—disobedience of orders, or something like that. Wait a minute."

He rapped sharply on the table, and the door behind, leading into the other room, instantly opened to admit the orderly. In the dim light of the single lamp Hamlin saw the short, stocky figure of a soldier, bearded, and immaculately clean. Even as the fellow's gloved hand came sharply up to his cap visor, Sheridan snapped out:

"Orderly, see if you recognize this man."

Erect, the very impersonation of military discipline, the soldier crossed the room, and stared into the unshaven face of the Sergeant. Suddenly his eyes brightened, and he wheeled about as if on a pivot, again bringing his gloved hand up in salute.

"Eet vas Colonel Hamlin, I tink ya," he said in strong German accent. "I know heem."

The Sergeant gripped his arm, bringing his face about once more.

"You are Shultz—Sergeant-Major Shultz!" he cried. "What ever became of you? What is it you know?"

"Wait a minute, Hamlin," said Sheridan quickly, rising to his feet. "I can explain this much better than that Dutchman. He means well enough, but his tongue twists. It seems Custer met you once in the Shenandoah, and later heard of your dismissal from the service. One night he spoke about the affair in my quarters. Shultz was present on duty and overheard. He spoke up like a little man; said he was there when you got your orders, that they were delivered verbally by the staff officer, and he repeated them for us word for word. He was taken prisoner an hour later, and never heard of your court-martial. Is that it, Shultz?"

"He Is My Soldier."

"Mine Gott, ya; I sa dot alretty," fervently. "He tell you not reconnaissance—charge! I heard eet twice. Gott in Himmel, vat a hell in der pines!"

"Hamlin," continued Sheridan quietly, "there is little enough we can do to right this wrong. There is no way in which that Confederate court-martial can be reconvened. But I shall have Shultz's deposition taken and scattered broadcast. We will clear your name of stain. What became of that cowardly cur who lied?"

Hamlin pressed one hand against his throbbing temples, struggling against the faintness which threatened mastery.

"He—he paid for it, sir," he managed to say. "He—he died three days ago in Black Kettle's camp."

"You got him!"

"Yes—I—I got him."

"I have forgotten—what was the coward's name?"

"Eugene Le Fevre, but in Kansas they called him Dupont."

"Dupont! Dupont!" Sheridan struck the table with closed fist.

"Good Lord, man! Not the husband of that woman who ran off with Lieutenant Gaskins, from Dodge?"

"I—I never heard—"

The room whirled before him in mist, the faces vanished; he heard an exclamation from Shultz, a sharp command from Sheridan, and then seemed to crumble up on the floor. There was the sharp rustle of a woman's skirt, a quick, light step, the pressure of an arm beneath his head.

"Quick, orderly, he's fainted," it was the General's voice, sounding afar off. "Get some brandy, Shultz. Here, Miss McDonald, let me hold the man's head."

She turned slightly, her soft hand pressing back the hair from Hamlin's forehead.

"No," she protested firmly, "he is my soldier."

And the Sergeant, looking past the face of the girl he loved saw tears dimming the stern eyes of his commander.

TWO WOMEN SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain me and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."—Mrs. R. B. CHILD, Beatrice, Neb.

The Other Case.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but my husband thought I had better write to you and I did so, stating my symptoms. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your vegetable Compound."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

Madam—Whether you need flour today or not, you'll do well to trade with the grocer who sells Zephyr Flour

IN the grocery trade, when a grocer gets the agency for Zephyr Flour, it is considered positive evidence that he stands high in his community as a man and high in the trade as a square merchant. It means, too, that the food stuffs in his store are of highest quality.

Zephyr Flour

We have spent endless care, time and money perfecting Zephyr Flour, the famous hard wheat flour of Kansas. We wash it and wash it and grind it and grind it, watching it all the while. Cooks who use it get a reputation for their bread and cakes, their biscuit and pies. It is so good, so sure, that we sell it with a positive guarantee to satisfy. Any Zephyr Flour grocer will, on request, return the money paid for any sack of Zephyr Flour that fails to please.

Save the chemist's test certificate of the wheat and flour, found in each sack of Zephyr Flour. It assures uniform high quality or another sack from your grocer or from us.

water icy cold and covered with floating ice, barred their passage; down in the valleys the drifted snow turned them aside. Again and again the struggling ponies floundered to their ears, or slid headlong down some steep declivity. Twice Hamlin was thrown, and once the Osage was crushed between floating cakes and submerged in the icy stream. Across the open barrens swept the wind into their faces, a ceaseless buffeting, chilling to the marrow; their eyes burned in the snow-glaze. Yet they rode on and on, voiceless, suffering in the grim silence of despair, fit denizens of that scene of utter desolation.

At the Cimarron the half-frozen Indian collapsed, falling from his saddle into the snow utterly exhausted. Staggering himself like a drunken man, the Sergeant dragged the nerveless body into a crevice of the bluff out of the wild sweep of the wind, tram-

CAPTURE TURKS AT ADRIANOPLE

Forts at Tchatalja Vigorously Assailed by Forces of the Allies.

CAPITAL HEARS CANNON ROAR

Besiegers Pound Ottoman Stronghold From All Sides for Days Without Compelling Its Surrender—Little News Is Released.

London, Feb. 6.—During a sortie by the Turkish troops from Adrianople, 1,000 of them were captured by the Bulgarians, according to a dispatch from Sofia.

London, Feb. 6.—A sharp engagement began on the Tchatalja lines, according to a dispatch from Constantinople. The roar of the cannon is said to be plainly audible in the Turkish capital.

Bombardment Continues.
London, Feb. 6.—The bombardment of Adrianople, which opened on Monday, is proceeding without interruption.

A report was spread that the Bulgarians had decided to suspend operations for 24 hours so as to give the Turkish garrison an opportunity to surrender. This, however, appears to be without foundation, as are many of the stories spread broadcast in reference to conditions around and in the beleaguered fortress.

A message from Belgrade, Serbia, speaks of the "heroic conduct" of two Serbian regiments which took part in an attack on the outer circle of forts. There is no means of verifying this or any other reports, as such fighting as may be in progress is taking place behind closed doors, so far as the outside world is concerned.

Dependence has to be placed on the more or less biased stories given out by the respective army headquarters. Only on extremely rare occasions can a newspaper correspondent succeed in circumventing the strict censorship.

Turks Report Only Eight Dead.
Constantinople, Feb. 6.—The long bombardment of Adrianople by the Bulgarians and Serbians has thus far resulted in only eight deaths within the city, according to the war office's official statement. Fifty private houses have been set on fire.

Shukri Pasha, commander-in-chief of Adrianople, reported by wireless telegraph to the war office here:

"The enemy is bombarding us. One hundred and thirty-eight common shells and eleven shrapnel have fallen in the city, killing eight people and wounding ten. A number of houses are in flames. The bombardment continues."

PLOT AGAINST ASQUITH

Letters Addressed to Premier Burst Into Flames When Opened.

Dundee, Scotland, Feb. 6.—A daring suffragette plot against the person of Premier Asquith was revealed when several letters addressed to the premier, as they were dumped by a postman on the sorting table at the post office, burst into flames, seriously burning five postmen who were at work at the table. When the flames had been extinguished each letter was found to have contained tubes of phosphorus and other combustible chemicals and a sheet of paper on which was inscribed, "Justice for Women!"

WILSON PLANS SPEECH

President-Elect Devotes Day to Inaugural Address.

Governor Decides Not to Discuss His Cabinet Further—Displeased Over Publication of Utterances.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 6.—President-elect Wilson devoted today to making the first draft of his inaugural address. He did not go to the state house at all, but remained in seclusion. The president-elect said that he had not had time recently to give any serious thought to the address, and he has not now any clear-cut idea of what it will contain.

"My inaugural address must be ready two weeks from today for distribution among the newspapers," he said. "It is necessary for me to make my draft, therefore, as soon as possible. Then I can think it over and make the final draft later."

The president-elect, as the result of a publication of two of his confidential talks, has decided not to discuss the cabinet any further until he is ready to announce it in complete form. The governor issued orders that one of the offending correspondents be excluded from his private office.

The governor's declaration that he would not discuss the cabinet any further came in reply to a query as to whether or not he purposes appointing to his cabinet any members of congress. He would not, naturally, say what his plans were.

"I have concluded not to discuss the cabinet any more," was the way he put it. "I think that will be the best way."

TAFT LISTENS TO PROTEST

Dillingham-Burnett Literary Test Immigration Bill Before President.

Washington, Feb. 6.—President Taft announced the cancellation of all other engagements today that he might hear protests against the Dillingham-Burnett literary test immigration bill which has passed congress and is before him for his approval. The bill provides that every immigrant over sixteen years shall be required to read in some known language or dialect including Yiddish. Because of their careful religious training, says Burnett, there are few Jews over sixteen who cannot read their Talmud. Exception is made by the bill in the case of immigrants fleeing from religious or political persecution.
